Harry Whitney Writes Sister of Cook's Discovery

AND COMMENTS ON TALK

Dr. Cook Had With Him-"Isn't It Too Bad Peary Failed in Being the First?"-Peary Still Doubts Dr. Cook,

New York, Sept. 22 .- It became known yesterday that a sister of Harry Whitney, the New Haven millionaire, who is now in the arctic on a hunting expedition, received a letter from him within the past few weeks stating that Dr. batteries, Adams and Gibson; Curtis and Frederick A. Cook had discovered the Graham; (second game) Pittsburg 5, north pole.

The letter, after commenting on Dr. Cook's talk with the writer after the and Roth; Moore, Moren and Donin. dations strongly approved them in so and fought for admission. In his and explorer's return from the pole, contains "Isn't it too bad that Commander Peary should have failed in being th first to get to the pole, after all the years and all his attempts?"

PEARY STILL DOUBTS COOK. Says He Has Made Official Report Discovery.

Sydney, Sept. 22 - Commander Pears received the newspaper correspondents in the parlors of his suite at his hotel her last night. He was asked what would be his procedure in making public his data of the expedition to the pole,

My next step will be to make a full report to the Peary Arc-tic club, and then I will render a more complete report to O. H. Titman, super-Intendent of the coast survey in Washington, upon the tidal, meteorological and ocean sounding work. That will complete for a time all netivity in that

"What observations are necessary to be taken to determine when one has reached the pole?" was asked. "I'll leave that to the geodetic survey to answer or some other competent hody. It might be the international polar commissior the National Geographical association, for example."

The correspondents wanted to know if Commander Peary could give a guess at the present location of Harry Whitney, who is carrying with him some of Dr. Cook's data, as the latter states. Peary said that if Whitney had carried the plan he announced when he left the Roosevelt, he should be somewhere on the west side of Davis straits at the several of the Red Sox players will who opened an extraordinary term of the letter from the Scotch whaler advis-ing like of Cook's claims. This settled will be played with New York. This velt when Pease first learned that and other man was going to put a prior tien ton the pole. Whitney had been picked up at Etah on Aug. 17, said Henson, and the Jeanie was met at North Star bay

Henson said that Peary met the two Eskimon, Etuckashus and Apellaha, who had been with Cook, after the Roosevelt had returned to Etah from the north and had questioned them in their own language about the extent of Cook's travels. They both told Peary at that time that Cook lad not been "two sleeps," or two nights, away from the northern lands on the edge of the polar

A guarantee may mean something, or it may not-it all depends on just what is said and the reliability of the guarantor. Generally a merchant means nothing when he says this thing or that thing is guaranteed. This big word, 'guarantee,' may mean a whole lot or it may simply cover a multitude of sins. The mere expression of the word counts for nothing. There has got to be something back of it-and it cannot be expressed in too plain words.

In our advertisement tomorrow we are are going to give you a guarantee that means something. It is about clothes, and is made by the largest clothes manufacturers in the world, Hart Schaffner & Marx. You want to read it-you really must if you are going to be fair to yourself on the clothes proposition this Fall. This guarantee we most certainly endorse and it is the strongest statement covering the clothes question that can be made.

If you do not read this guarantee and you are not thoroughly satisfied with the next suit of clothes or overcoat you buy-then you, and you only are to blame.
